FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

InfinityHR and Answers Accounting Form Strategic Partnership

Partnership will provide HCM solutions for Answers Accounting client base

Scottsdale, Arizona – May 30, 2017

Answers Accounting, a business solution provider for over 20 years, today announced their value-added reseller (VAR) partnership with InfinityHR, a leading provider of cloud-based HCM solutions.

The partnership will give Answers Accounting the ability to offer a robust and easy-to-use Human Capital Management solution for their client base, including integration with Sage 300, Sage 100, NetSuite and Acumatica platforms.

“We are thrilled to begin our journey with Infinity HR and are pleased to offer their HR and Payroll solutions to our clients and future prospects.” Said Jan Senecal, VP of Sales for Answers Accounting, Inc.

“InfinityHR’s collaboration with Answers Accounting will provide our mutual clients with the tools and data they need to take their business to the next level. We’re looking forward to working with Answers Accounting to help our customers accelerate their business.” said Katherine Clements, VP of Sales & Marketing for InfinityHR.
